Star Photos On Display at City Hall

News Advisory

WHEN: Through the end of March 2008

WHERE: Second floor of City Hall
550 Main Street in Downtown Hartford

The City of Hartford invites you to come view the "Photographic Odyssey" by Ron Thompson Sr., a Hartford photographer who says that his pictures focus on uncovering beauty where it is seldom noticed.

Mr. Thompson's photograph "Boy in the Hood" was a winner of Hartford's "Catch a Rising Star Photo Contest." All the winners can be seen on our website, www.hartford.gov.

Mayor Eddie A Perez says, "This display is a prelude to what we hope will be a number of 'Arts in the Atrium' type events. Hartford is a premiere city for arts and entertainment and City Hall provides a great canvas and display background.

For more information about reserving the atrium for public arts events, please contact Kejuan Dillard at 522-4888 ext. 6002 or dillk001@hartford.gov.

News media interested in viewing or doing a segment on 'Arts in the Atrium,' please contact Sarah Barr Director of Communications at 522-4888 ext. 6217 or at barrs001@hartford.gov.
